Mike,

Sorry for the late response, I have not forgotten about this.

Thanks for passing this along. We are reviewing CFAC property records, including performing a title search, and will get back to you when we know more.

Best regards,

John

Did this individual own the area is it now owned by CFAC? I'm sure this will continue to generate questions and I think we should be able to answer them.

Hi Mike

We did not see this nor are we aware of it.

As I read it this is a Columbia Falls landfill, in the article they leased the property from an individual Paul Hunt

Hi Guys,

What do you know about the Article that was in the HHN? I'll forward the email in case you haven't seen it yet.

Hi Chris

I was on leave last week. Interesting article. Landfills are regulated through the state. That would be where to find out info to your questions. We only get involved when the state would request our assistance.

I know people have been worried about cedar creek. I wonder if this old dump was ever cleaned up. Not part of CFAC, but not far from it either. Read the photo caption of the picture. Notice the date of the paper...
